

NZAC is committed to honouring our Te Tiriti relationship with Tangata Whenua

WE'LL FOCUS ON 3
AREAS...

CONTINUE TO:

- Position NZAC so key stakeholders see it as a credible and respected professional body
- Promote NZAC effectively so all key stakeholders know and respect the organisation as a counselling profession leader
- Protect NZAC's reputation and position with stakeholders

AND 5 KEY
PROJECTS...

- Te Rōpū Ānga Whakamua: implement co-governance structure including Te Tiriti o Waitangi audit
- Enhance cultural inclusion
- Implement an advocacy strategy, inc. promoting internally and as part of CPD an awareness of climate change actions
- Design the 'workforce of the future' (external)
- Organisational sustainability (internal)

TO CREATE BY END OF 2023.

- Te Tiriti o Waitangi Manual complete, integrated into all systems/policies
- Governance, management, IT reviews complete, recommendations actioned, annual revenue to increase
- Create membership networks: Students; Asian; Pacific; Takatāpui; Rainbow Youth; Differently-abled; Provisional
- Consumer Comms plans written for key stakeholders/projects
- Future workforce strategy complete
