The Constitution of the New Zealand Association of Counsellors Incorporated

Te Roopu Kaiwhiriwhiri o Aotearoa

1. NAME

The name of the association shall be the New Zealand Association of Counsellors Incorporated, Te Roopu Kaiwhiriwhiri o Aotearoa.<sup>1</sup>

2. OBJECTS

The objects of the Association shall be:

1. Te Roopu Kaiwhiriwhiri o Aotearoa / the New Zealand Association of Counsellors (NZAC) is committed to honouring our responsibilities under Te Tiriti o Waitangi.
2. Te Roopu Kaiwhiriwhiri o Aotearoa / the New Zealand Association of Counsellors (NZAC) is committed to contributing to the healing of the injustices from Colonisation, with intergenerational effects that many of our communities continue to suffer today.
3. To assist clients to obtain services adequate to their needs;
4. To develop common policies on counselling issues and transmit comment on these issues to the public, to the government, and to other appropriate authorities;
5. To ensure the establishment, maintenance and enhancement of professional standards;
6. To protect and promote the interests and public standing of the counselling profession;
7. To promote and protect satisfactory conditions of employment in the collective interests of the counselling profession;
8. To provide a forum for members to discuss matters of common concern;
9. To promote quality training, supervision and professional development;
10. To publish such journals, monographs and other publications as the National Executive shall from time to time decide;
11. To affiliate with national and international organisations of counselling;
12. To express, through its activities and resource allocations, a strong commitment to reduce the social disadvantages resulting from differences of ethnicity, gender, age, class, religion, sexual orientation, and any contravention of human rights.

<sup>1</sup> This broadly translates as: The “weaving” group of Aotearoa. Weaving is used in a figurative sense meaning the combining together of various elements into a whole, i.e., making the whole person, drawing “ideas” or “threads” together. The name was suggested by Mr Don Ngawati and approved by the Reverend Sir Kingi Ihaka of the Maori Language Commission.

3. MEMBERS

There are three forms of membership of the Association. All members are bound by the NZAC Code of Ethics and are accountable to the Association. A register will be held of members of NZAC.

A. MEMBER

The following shall be eligible for Member status:

- a) Persons of good character who have met the requirements as outlined in the Membership Criteria.
- b) Persons of good character who are invited to become Members by resolution of the National Executive.

Only Members shall be entitled to use the initials MNZAC after their name.

B. LIFE MEMBER

- a) Life Membership may be conferred from time to time upon past or present Members in accordance with the current procedures.
- b) Life Members shall be entitled to all rights of membership but from the date of conferral shall be exempt from the payment of subscriptions and levies.

C. PROVISIONAL MEMBER

Provisional members are persons of good character who are working towards Member status.

- a) Provisional Members may be granted to persons who have met the requirements as outlined in the Membership Criteria.
- b) Provisional Member status may be held without review for a maximum of 5 years.

Provisional Members may not use the initials MNZAC after their name.

4. AFFILIATED PARTIES

These are people who are not bound by the Code of Ethics of NZAC and are not accountable to the Association. Their fees entitle them to receive all publications of the Association. They may not use the letters MNZAC or imply by any other means that they are members.

A. STUDENT AFFILIATES

Student Affiliates are persons that are enrolled in a counselling training programme with a New Zealand counselling training provider. These persons have yet to meet NZAC membership criteria for Provisional Member status.

B. SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers are persons and organisations, with an interest in counselling.

5. CHANGES TO MEMBERSHIP STATUS

- A. The National Executive shall authorise all terminations.

writing;

OR

- b) When their Annual Practising Certificate has lapsed.

This certificate shall lapse when payment of the annual subscription has not been made, or appropriate time payment arranged, within three (3) months of the date on which the account was rendered, or when a properly completed Request for an Annual Practising Certificate has not been received within that period.

To return to membership within the year from when their account was rendered, the person shall pay all fees and complete the Request for an Annual Practising Certificate. From time to time the National Executive shall establish a policy on how a person may regain their original membership status if more than a year has elapsed.

OR

- c) When audited, do not submit a Continuing Professional Development Plan and Record for that year to the satisfaction of the Continuing Professional Development Auditors

OR

- d) When a recommendation for expulsion is formally received by the National Executive from the Ethics Committee.

6. SUBSCRIPTIONS AND LEVIES

- A. The subscription fee increase (and rationale) anticipated for the following year shall be advised by the National Executive at each Annual General Meeting.
- B. The National Executive may, with the consent of the Association obtained by postal or electronic ballot, levy special-purpose subscriptions, which are calculated to advance the interests of the Association. Any such special-purpose levy shall require a 75% majority of votes cast and such approving votes must total not less than two thirds of the membership of the Association.
- C. Anyone joining the Association after the annual renewal date shall pay, for that year only, a pro-rata amount of the current subscription. The same consideration will apply to those Provisional Members who upgrade during a financial year. Student Affiliates and Subscribers who join after six calendar months of the current subscription year have elapsed shall, for that year only, be required to pay 50% of the annual fee. Life members are not required to pay a subscription.

7. GENERAL MEETINGS

- A. An Annual General Meeting of the Association shall be held on a date and in a place to be determined each year by the National Executive.
- B. On receipt of a requisition signed by not less than ten Members, in terms of sections 3 A, 3 B and 3 C of this constitution, and stating the purpose of the meeting, the Secretary shall call a Special General Meeting to be held within forty-two days of receipt of the requisition, on a date and at a place to be determined by the National Executive.
- C. Notice of every Annual or Special General Meeting shall be given in writing to the membership, together with the proposed agenda, no less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting.
- D. The presence of twenty Members, in terms of sections 3 A, 3 B and 3 C of this constitution, shall be a quorum at General Meetings.

- E. The business of the Annual General Meeting shall be:
1. To receive:
    - a) The annual report of the President,
    - b) The statement of accounts for the financial year ending on the preceding 31 March,

    - d) Portfolio Reports from National Executive Members,
    - e) The Executive Sub- Committee reports,
    - f) Branch reports.
  2. To pass:
    - a) Any resolution about such reports or accounts.
  3. To ratify:
    - a) Appointments made by the National Executive to the Ethics Committee, the Supervision Committee, the Membership Committee and the Counsellor Education Committee.
  4. To elect:
    - a) Officers and an Auditor, if an Auditor is required.
  5. To approve:
    - a) Amendments to the Codes of Ethics and Supervision.
  6. To undertake:
    - a) Any other general business.
- F. At any General Meeting, votes by written proxy of Members, in terms of section 3 A, 3 B and 3C of this constitution whose subscriptions and levies are paid, who are unable to be present shall be accepted on any motion arising at the meeting, provided that all such proxies are in the hands of the Secretary not later than 24 hours prior to the commencement of the meeting.

8. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

- A. The chair at any meeting shall be taken by the President, with Te Ahi Kaa, or in their absence, by a Member appointed by the meeting. The Chairperson shall have full authority to conduct the meeting in accordance with standard meeting procedure.
- B. Members, Life Members and Provisional Members who hold a current Annual Practising Certificate may vote at any meeting. However, Provisional Members may not vote on matters determining the criteria for membership.
- C. Persons who are not Members, in terms of sections 3 A, 3 B and 3 C of this constitution, may, with the permission of the Chairperson, attend any meeting, and address the meeting, but shall not be entitled to move or vote on any motion.
- D. With the exceptions provided for in these Rules, it shall not be necessary for written notice of motion to be given before discussion and voting is permitted on any matter, provided that the National Executive or the Association shall not be bound to act on any resolution of which notice in writing has not been given to the Secretary prior to the meeting.

- E. Motions shall be carried by a majority determined by the voices or, on request, by a show of hands, with the proviso that a Member, in terms of sections 3 A, 3 B and 3 C of this constitution, dissatisfied with the ruling may call for a secret ballot in which holders of proxies shall be allowed additional votes equivalent to the number of proxies they hold.
  - F. The Chairperson of any meeting shall have a casting vote as well as a deliberative vote and the Te Ahi Kaa presides over any meetings - or voting - about Maori issues.
  - G. In the event of any dispute regarding procedure, the decision of the meeting shall be final.
